

THE GRADUATING LAW CLASS AT WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY

Photo by Milley & Son, Lexington, Va.

McKay, Scott, Bradham, Hartman, Sells, Bouchelle, Henerson, Day, Brumback, Ochsner, Poindexter, Jones, Duncan, Harman, Hardy.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LEXINGTON, Va., June 11.—The men composing the graduating class in law this year at Washington and Lee University have done distinguished work at the University. They are the leaders of literary thought at the University, and in nearly every instance have won some distinction in their college course. They are:

Robert Melton Baker is a native of Petersburg, W. Va. He is a member of the Cotton Club, University base-ball team '01-'02-'03, editor Calyx from Senior Law Class '03.
Julian Frederick Bouchelle, of Thomasville, Ga., orator Graham-Lee celebration '03; law editor Collegian; historian law class '04.
David Alexander Bradham, of Manning, S. C., bachelor of science of South Carolina Military Academy; orator and medalist Graham-Lee celebration '03.
Robert E. Brown, of Zolfo, Fla.,

Max M. Brown, of Lake City, Fla., bachelor of science of University of Florida; base-ball team '03; president senior law class '03-'04.
Franklin Holiday Brumback, of Woodstock, Va.; Roanoke College '00-'01; treasurer senior law class '03-'04.
Roy Clifton Cromer, of Dayton, Va.; University of Virginia '03-'04; first honor junior law class '02-'03; vice-president senior law class '04.
John Henry Day, of Norfolk, Va.; Charles S. Hamlin scholarship '03; debater Randolph-Macon intercollegiate debate '03; board editor Ring-tum Phi and Southern Collegian; business manager Calyx '04; president Tidewater Virginia Club.
Albert Marshall Duncan, of Springfield, Ky.; bachelor of arts, Washington and Lee '03; editor-in-chief of Ring-tum Phi, Southern Collegian and Calyx.
Ira Calvin Green, of Hurricane, W. Va.,

Walter Cecil Hardy, of Monterey, Va.; law class orator '03-'04.
James William Harman, of Tazewell, Va.; Tazewell College; Calyx editor Senior Law Class, '04.
Beverly Mercer Hartman, of Richmond, Va.; Washington medalist, '00; alumnus editor Calyx, '03; president Washington and Lee '02-'03; business manager Ring-tum Phi and Calyx; board of editors Southern Collegian.
Herbert Stabler Ochsner, of Leesburg, Va.; Glee Club; Cotton Club; final ball president, '04.
Eldridge Watts Poindexter, of Perrowville, Va.; bachelor of arts, Randolph-Macon College; vice-president Junior Law Class, '02-'03; deputy clerk Moot Court.
Stanley Scott, of Eastville, Va.; Richmond College, '03; orator Washington celebration '03; secretary Bradford Law Society, '03.
George Caldwell Sells, of Bristol, Tenn.; bachelor of arts, King's College.

JOHN CURTIS KICKS OUT

Withdraws From Pythians While Being Initiated in Second Degree.

HE DEMANDS HIS MONEY

Warrant Out for Deputy Grand Chancellor, Charged With Assault and Taking $10.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ASHEVILLE, N. C., June 11.—Deputy Grand Chancellor Geo. L. Hackney, of the Knights of Pythias, was yesterday summoned to appear at Canton, N. C., to answer the charge of assault upon John Curtis, a lumberman of Haywood county. The warrant also contained the charge that Hackney had taken and carried away the sum of $10, the property of Curtis.

Several months ago Hackney assisted at the organization of a new Pythian lodge at Canton, and Curtis was one of the new members initiated. KICKS OUT.—He paid $10; had received the initiatory degree, and the second rank was being conferred when suddenly he refused to allow the work to proceed any further, and made a peremptory demand that his $10 be refunded. Mr. Hackney requested the members of the lodge to reason with Mr. Curtis, and it was possible to prevent a scene and persuade him to finish taking the rank. The candidate for Pythian honors, however, was in no reasonable mood, and was finally allowed to leave the hall.

ADVISOR'S REPAYMENT.—Whereupon Mr. Hackney advised the lodge at Canton to refund Mr. Curtis the $10, refuse him further rank and thus end the matter. This apparently has not been done, and the warrant has been served on Mr. Hackney.

Hackney, accompanied by A. S. Bernard, who will act as legal adviser for the Grand Lodge, will leave for Canton Tuesday morning, June 21st, the trial being set for that day.

The affair has caused considerable stir in Pythian circles. It is the first occurrence of the kind that has ever happened in North Carolina, where the order is particularly strong, and will be watched with a great deal of interest.

Two precincts reported no vote for Governor. The county is entitled to 23 votes in the State convention.

HEARING DEFERRED.

Case of Alleged Train Wrecker Continued—Pool Confesses.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALISBURY, N. C., June 11.—"Dunk" Arthur, colored, under the charge of wrecking No. 40, the Southern's fast mail, at this place early Thursday morning, was arraigned for a preliminary hearing before Justice D. M. Miller yesterday. After reviewing the matter, however, the hearing was postponed until the 18th instant, and the prisoner was remanded to Rowan county jail. Arthur is now non-committal, save that he protests his innocence. The story of the crime, nevertheless, grows blacker each day, as new points are gained connecting the negro with the deed. A lynching was narrowly averted by the thoughtful work of Sheriff Julian in hiding the brute from the furious crowd.

Adam Pool, the young white man who is in jail, charged with a dastardly assault upon Lawson Josey, two weeks ago, near this city, has at last made a confession to the jailer, to the effect that he held the old man while his companion, Thomas Foll, mutilated their victim. Neither Pool nor Foll have been able to give the $1,500 bond under which each are held.

At a meeting of the Spencer school board, held last night, Mrs. Lena B. Mathes, who has served the school during the past year, was re-elected principal, with Misses Jennie Eagle, of Monroe, and Mildred Cook, of Danville, as teachers. The board decided to maintain the school for a full nine months term.

DABNEY & JOHNSTON

301 East Broad, Cor. Third.

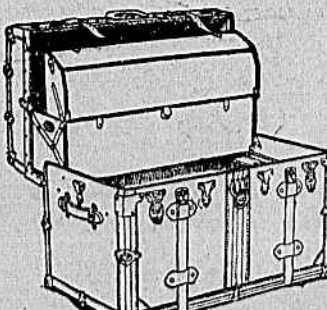

SPECIAL SALE ON TRUNKS AND TRAVELING BAGS FOR THIS WEEK.

We want you to visit our Trunk and Bag Department, which is entirely separate from our Shoe Store, and by far the most pleasant spot in the building, never too warm. Here you will find everything for the travelers' use at prices to suit the most economical buyers. We mention only a few prices:

Flat Top Trunks, canvas covered, full size and with heavy iron bottom and good strong bolts. Prices, $1.85 $2.00 $2.25 $2.40 $2.60

28 30 32 34 36
This is the kind you pay elsewhere from $2.50 to $3.50 for.

Roller Tray Trunks are always well made. $3.50 $3.85 $4.25 $4.50 $4.75

28 30 32 34 36
This is the kind you pay as high as $6.50 for.

For this week we will save you from 50c to $5.00 apiece on anything you may want in either Trunks or Traveling Bags.

We can furnish you genuine Cowhide Suit Cases from $4.00 to $12.00.

Other grades from $1.00 to $3.00.

Telescopes from 50c up.

Don't fail to come early in the week and get your pick of the elegant bargains we are offering.

SCORED THE FIDDLER

Berlin Court Justifies Critic Who "Roasted" Violinist Kubelik.

SAID THAT HE WAS STUPID

Judge Said Wagner Had Been Called "Crazy" and Had Not Kicked.

(By Associated Press.)
BERLIN, June 11.—"Said dismissed with costs for the plaintiff," was the verdict of the court yesterday at Frankfurt-on-the-Main in the suit which Kubelik, the violinist, brought against Dr. Gehrmann, the music critic of the Frankfurt Zeitung, for what the violinist deemed insulting personalities in criticism of his concert.

Dr. Gehrmann described Kubelik as "a stupid looking man (bloede dreinschnaepend) of superlative effeminate appearance," and spoke of him also as a "specialist" and "miracle-worker, who produces nothing but tones."

The proceedings turned partly upon the meaning of the word "bloede," which experts testified was used in North Germany in the sense of "shy" or "expressionless," and the court noted that Dr. Gehrmann came from Berlin to Frankfurt.

But Herr Schwarzchild, Kubelik's lawyer, saw in the word proof that offensive personalities characterizing Berlin musical criticism were being introduced. The Frankfurt lawyer also objected to the word "specialist," which he claimed was only applicable to a variety performer.

Dr. Gehrmann's defense of the word "bloede" was that he only meant to say that Kubelik riveted his eyes on one spot when playing. The presiding judge took a hand in the proceedings and pointed out that he possessed a pamphlet written against Wagner during the great composer's life time and designed to prove that Wagner was crazy. Yet Wagner never once brought suit against his critics.

THE COURT ALSO CLAIMED THAT Kubelik invited criticism on his personal appearance by having full length portraits of himself displayed in shop windows as advertisements. Experts who were called testified that Kubelik possessed a astonishing technique, but that he aimed more at external effects than at artistic depth. His whole program was arranged with the view of displaying virtuosity.

The court in explaining the reasons for the dismissal of the suit, said the word "specialist" was justified, since Kubelik "cultivated the break neck feats of the circus."

CATARRHAL NERVOUSNESS.

A Condition Known as Systemic Catarrh—A Congressman's Indorsement.

DR. G. B. CROWE, a physician and a very influential man in Alabama and chairman of the Populist State Committee, in a recent letter to Dr. Hartman, of Columbus, Ohio, says:

Washington, D. C.

"Peruna is a most valuable medicine. It affords me unlimited pleasure to testify as to the merits of your remedy as a catarrh cure. I have used it as such and find it is of very great benefit when my nervous system is run down. I heartily recommend Peruna to all whose nervous systems are deranged."—G. B. Crowe, M. D.

The nervous system is the source of all our bodily powers, mental or physical.

The brain and spinal cord generate the power and the nerve fibres convey the power in every part of the body.

It is the nerves that give the heart power to beat; it is the nerves that give the arteries the power to contract, and thus regulate the flow of blood through them.

Each artery is provided with an elastic or muscular coat, which is capable of contracting or expanding as to permit more or less blood to pass through, according to the needs of the body.

When the nerves are paralyzed or weakened this contractile power of the blood vessels is wholly or partly destroyed.

This produces congestion, especially of the mucous membrane lining the various organs of the body.

When this congestion continues for some time, it is known as chronic catarrh.

The congestion may occur in the mucous membrane lining the nose, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels, kidneys and pelvic organs.

Whenever it occurs it produces the same condition—chronic catarrh.

J. H. Huling, ex-member of Congress from West Virginia, writes:

CONGRESSMAN J. H. HULING.

"Peruna is a cure for catarrh and a tonic of most agreeable excellence is beyond all question, as has been proven by many of my friends who have been benefited by its use."—J. H. Huling, Charleston, W. Va.

LEON J. CHARLES, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, WAS VERY NEAR NERVOUS COLLAPSE—SAVED BY PE-RU-NA.

Leon J. Charles, Attorney-at-Law, Winslow, Arizona, writes:
"For a man taken up with the daily routine, and rushed and pushed constantly to do thirty hours' work in twenty-four, there will invariably come a time when nature demands her due. I was on the edge of just such a breakdown, when Peruna was recommended to me, and proved a helper and a friend. It seemed impossible at the time to take a vacation, and yet the constant brain fog seemed to compel it. Peruna built up the broken down system, restored me to a normal condition, and through its use I was enabled to continue my work. I have learned to appreciate Peruna very highly, and advocate it as a safe, proper and indeed necessary medicine to every business man who is worn out, tired and sick."—Leon J. Charles.

The symptoms of catarrhal nervousness are:—A foreboding of calamity, a sense of something awful about to happen, twitching of the eyelids, moving brown specks before the eyes and metallic ringing in the ears, sour stomach after eating, with belching of gas, a feeling of great weight in the stomach, morbid fear of leaving home, a constant desire to talk of symptoms, chills and hot flashes, hands and feet usually cold and clammy, general tendency to coldness and dryness of the skin, to coldness and neuralgic headache, nervous chills, hysteria, sinking and faint spells, distressing palpitation of the heart, defective eyesight, total inability to read, without color, loss of flesh, sleeplessness and sexual excitability. Some of these symptoms are present in every case.

All that is claimed for Peruna is that it cures catarrh, wherever located, by its action on the vaso-motor system of nerves. That it is a specific for that phase of catarrh called catarrhal nervousness the accompanying letters show:
"Mr. T. W. Scott, Custom House, San Francisco, Cal., writes:
"Some time ago, suffering from indigestion, loss of sleep, and what might be termed general exhaustion, I was recommended to try Peruna, which I did, and found that it did all that is claimed for it."
If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

A RICHMOND BOY WINS HIGH HONORS

Mr. Bowie, of This City, Magna Cum Laude, Graduate of Harvard College.

Mr. Walter Russell Bowie, son of the late Walter Russell Bowie and Mrs. Elizabeth Branch Bowie, of Richmond, will graduate in the class of 1904 at Harvard College with much credit to himself and his family.

Mr. Bowie is just twenty-one years old. He spent a short while at Woodberry Forest during his early school life, but received his most important training before entering the Hill School at Pottstown, Pa., under Mr. McGuire, in Richmond.

MR. WALTER RUSSELL BOWIE.

He spent three years at Pottstown, and has been four at Harvard, where he has won many class honors, and where he will get both his B. A. and M. A. degrees, though the latter will not be formally conferred this year.

Mr. Bowie is the editor of "The Crimson," the daily Harvard paper, and is the ivy orator of his class. He will deliver his oration in the Stadium, which has recently been completed, and which will be signified by the use in the commencement of this year.

He belongs to most of the college societies, is prominent in the Hasty Pudding Club, and is a former president of the Institute.

Richmond people generally, as well as Mr. Bowie's family and friends, take a pride and an interest in a career that has been so well begun and so honorably ended.

Several members of his family, including his sister, Miss Martha Bowie, will be at Harvard to see him graduate.

He will go to Pottstown next fall to accept a position in the Hill School, which has been offered him. Mr. Bowie

A POLICEMAN IN CONTEMPT

Charges Against Him Dismissed, But He Tries to Strike the Prisoner.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, Va., June 11.—Some very damaging testimony was brought out in the investigation before the Mayor to-day of charges made before the grand jury that Policeman John R. Hutson "winked at the presence of blind tigers," but they could not be sustained by other witnesses, and the case was dismissed.

During the trial Mr. Hutson tried to strike Ballard Clark, colored, who is under indictment for selling whiskey without a license, who testified that he tipped the officer not to raid his place. Clark said that he had made it a business to hand Mr. Hutson several dollars weekly, and that when the tips stopped coming his place was raided. Mr. Hutson was fined for contempt of court.

Will Give Grand Ball.

To-morrow evening a grand ball will be given at Sanger Hall by a committee of young men who have done everything possible to make it one of the most pleasant affairs of the season. Only a limited number of tickets will be sold. A pleasant time is promised to those who attend. The Committee of Arrangements is composed as follows: S. A. Lotzow, Thomas Carreras, Ambrose C. Byrne, John M. Duffy, David Parker, John Donovan.

DON'T FAIL TO READ MARGARET RYAN'S DELIGHTFUL ROMANCE OF SOUTHERN LOVE AND AMBITION. "SUE TERRY: Two Hearts, Two Minds, Two Women's Ways." A most intensely interesting character story of a life. Beautifully Illustrated, $1.50 Postpaid. THE M. W. HAZEN CO., N. Y.

IF YOU WANT A Bookkeeper, Stenographer, Clerk or Office Help of any kind; Cooks, Maids and Butlers, write or call the Southern Intelligence Office,

LEE TODD, Proprietor.
PHONE 486. 211 1/2 NORTH SIXTH STREET.
We furnish just the kind of help you want. We have, at all times, numerous applicants on our register. We have investigated the efficiency and character of these applicants, and can guarantee to suit you in the help you want.